

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

GLOBAL GOLD PROTOCOL & THE WYOMING RESERVE

Founding Vault Partner & Tokenization Beta Program

This Memorandum of Understanding (“MOU”) is entered into as of 2026-03-12, by and between:

Global Gold Protocol, a decentralized infrastructure platform for tokenized precious metals (“Global Gold”), and

The Wyoming Reserve, a precious metals vaulting and custody institution headquartered in Wyoming (“The Wyoming Reserve”).

Global Gold and The Wyoming Reserve may each be referred to as a “Party” and collectively as the “Parties.”

1. Purpose

The purpose of this MOU is to establish a framework for collaboration between the Parties regarding the initial beta implementation of the Global Gold tokenization infrastructure and the potential participation of The Wyoming Reserve as a Founding Vault Partner in the Global Gold ecosystem.

The Parties acknowledge a shared interest in modernizing the settlement infrastructure for physical precious metals while maintaining physical custody, legal integrity, and institutional standards.

2. Scope of Collaboration

Under this MOU, the Parties intend to collaborate in exploring and implementing the following initiatives:

- Participation of The Wyoming Reserve in the initial beta testing of Global Gold’s tokenization engine
- Registration of eligible physical gold held within The Wyoming Reserve vaulting infrastructure for use within the Global Gold protocol framework
- Evaluation of tokenization processes for allocated physical gold bars using Global Gold’s technology
- Exploration of liquidity frameworks for tokenized gold assets within the Global Gold ecosystem

- Development of operational procedures for vault integration within the Global Gold settlement architecture

3. Beta Participation

The Wyoming Reserve intends to participate in the initial beta testing phase of the Global Gold tokenization engine, which may include the tokenization of institutional-grade physical gold bars held within The Wyoming Reserve custody.

The purpose of the beta program is to:

- Validate the operational functionality of the tokenization infrastructure
- Demonstrate asset registration and ownership representation
- Test integration between vault custody and digital settlement systems

The Parties acknowledge that beta participation is intended for testing, validation, and infrastructure development purposes.

4. Roles of the Parties

Global Gold Protocol

Global Gold intends to provide:

- Tokenization infrastructure for physical precious metals
- Smart contract systems for digital asset representation
- Protocol standards governing tokenized metal assets
- Technical support for vault integration

The Wyoming Reserve

The Wyoming Reserve intends to provide:

- Custody infrastructure for eligible precious metals
- Verification of metal holdings and associated metadata
- Operational collaboration for asset registration and tokenization testing
- Participation in the beta evaluation process

5. Founding Vault Partner Status

Subject to successful collaboration and continued alignment, The Wyoming Reserve may be recognized as a Founding Vault Partner within the Global Gold ecosystem.

Founding Vault Partners may play a role in shaping early operational standards and protocol integration frameworks.

6. Non-Binding Nature

This MOU reflects the current intentions of the Parties regarding potential collaboration.

Except for provisions relating to confidentiality and public communications, this MOU does not create legally binding obligations and does not constitute a definitive partnership agreement.

Any binding commitments shall be documented in subsequent definitive agreements if the Parties elect to proceed.

7. Confidentiality

Each Party agrees to maintain the confidentiality of non-public information shared in connection with this collaboration unless disclosure is mutually agreed or legally required.

8. Public Communications

Public announcements referencing this collaboration shall be made only with mutual consent of both Parties.

9. Term

This MOU shall remain in effect for twelve (12) months from the effective date unless extended or terminated by mutual agreement.
